Your personal data will be shared within Mailchimp in the United States of America. When consented, your data will therefore be shared outside the EEA.

6. Cookies

The website of Stichting NIDV uses so-called functional and analytical 'cookies'. Cookies are small data files stored on your computer, tablet or smartphone when you visit a website.

The functional cookies are used to allow the website to perform properly. The analytical cookies are used to create statistics on the use of the website. Stichting NIDV uses Google Inc.'s Analytics to this end and has set these cookies 'privacy-friendly', in line with the instructions of the Dutch Data Protection Authority. This means that the data collected using Google Analytics will be anonymised as much as possible and that Google will never process your entire IP-address but will always mask its final octet. Google does not use the collected data for its own purposes, because Stichting NIDV has not given it permission to use the data for that purpose. Stichting NIDV also does not use any other Google-services in combination with the Google Analytics-cookies. Google stores the collected data on servers in the United States of America. Stichting NIDV has concluded a processing agreement with Google, Inc. For more information, please read Google Analytics' privacy policy. If you do not wish to accept Google Analytics cookies, please click here. You can also turn off cookies, by allowing selected cookies or no cookies at all in your browser's settings. Please take into account that if you do not accept certain cookies, you will not be able to use certain functionalities of the website, and that the website's ease of use will be limited.
